Secret is Out.

It just leaked out Monday morning that on last Tuesday about 2:30 p. m. Dr. W. C. Taylor, of the First Baptist church, of this city, was much disturbed in his study by hearing several quick, but distinct knocks on the parsonage door.

Dr. Taylor at once arose from his study, opened the door and greeted the young man who was standing there with the usual "How do you do, sir? What can I do for you?"

In reply the young man informed him that he was looking for a friend who could and would perform a service for him in which he was peculiarly interested. Without hesitation Dr. Taylor assured him that he would be pleased to perform such service, and in a short time Dr. Taylor was again standing at the door, saying, "Come right in," to the same young man who was accompanied by a young lady whose blushes gave evidence that she, too, was personally interested in the occasion.

This service proved to be a matrimonial one, which was soon performed by Dr. Taylor in his usual pleasing manner, and made Francis W. Swiger and Jessie Alberta Morrison man and wife.

Mr. Swiger is a profitable farmer of Eagle district, and the oldest son of the late Allen Taylor Swiger, and Lydia Swiger, of Rosebud, this county, and the only brother of Ira L. Swiger, the present candidate for the Republican nomination for assessor of this county.

Mrs. Swiger is the youngest daughter of Ashum and Sarah (Nixon) Morrison, farmers of Lambert's run, and the youngest of nine children, all of whom are married except Ida and India, who live at home. The other children are Lee, a railroad engineer, who married in the West and lives at Winslow, Ariz.; Earnest, a farmer, who married May Mines, and lives at Warren, O.; Moses, a farmer, who married Sara Slocum, and lives near Boothville; Henry, an undertaker, who married a lady at Union says Mrs. Hamilton.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person,"

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

town, Pa., where they live; Indus, a machinist, who married in Indiana, where he now resides; and Belle, who was married to Charles Elliott, of Wilsonburg, where they live.

After charging Dr. Taylor to keep the secret, Mr. and Mrs. Swiger took the Short Line train for Rosebud, where they both pretended to neighbors that she (Mrs. Swiger) was just visiting for a few days.

After a two-days' visit Mrs. Swiger returned home, where, no doubt, she is now busy preparing to return to her new home at Rosebud, wondering all the while "When will we tell the secret?"

Opening in September.

As was duly announced in the Telegram, parents visiting day was observed at the Morgan school Friday afternoon. A program was rendered by the pupils of the school. The opening of the newly remodeled Morgan school, however, was not a part of the program Friday as the new part of the building is not completed. The opening of this building will be announced later. It will probably be soon after school convenes in September. The Morgan school is in Stealey Heights, one of the best suburbs Clarksville has. The people in Stealey Heights are proud of their new school building. Perhaps nowhere in Clarksville is there a better school spirit. Somewhere between 150 and 200 people attended the visiting day Friday.

Tickets Ready.

BRIDGEPORT, May 15.—The annual alumni banquet of the Bridgeport high school will be held in Bridgeport on the evening of May 30. The committee will have some prominent speakers for the evening and a good time is planned. This being on the evening of Memorial day, there will naturally be quite a number of the old members from out of town here to spend the day with friends and can be present on that evening better than any other. Tickets have been printed, and may be purchased from Miss Sophia Benedum, Miss Harriet Lang, Miss Audra Jarvis, Mrs. Samuel Steele, W. D. Taylor and John Davison.

Missionary Society Meets.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. The lesson study will be in charge of Mrs. B. F. Robinson. After the business meeting there will be a social with Mrs. M. F. Snider, Mrs. Charles Parr, Mrs. John Sopher and Mrs. Morgan Parsons hostesses.

Enjoyable Entertainment.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given Sunday afternoon by Misses Genevieve and Ella Sprouse at Dola. Those present were Misses Merle Swiger, Bonnie Heflin, Della Stiers, Blanche Montgomery, Annie Bowers, Wanda Bogges, Jessie Montgomery, Mollie Smith and Lulu Baker, and Messrs. Sherman Flowers, Autie Heflin, Virgil Cunningham, Robert Swiger, Foster Wright, Harrison Hel-dreth, Virgil Swiger, Clark Rogers, Clark Griffin and Arlie Lyons.

No Meeting Tuesday.

Owing to the absence of the president of the Truth Searchers Club, of the Duff Street United Brethren church, there will be no meeting of that organization Tuesday evening.

Maccabees Class Initiation.

The Maccabees will initiate a class of ten members at Wilsonburg Tuesday night. Felt Summit tent and Sardinia will meet in a union meeting with the Maccabees at Wilsonburg. The Clarksville degree team will go up to put on the work. This will be one of the big meetings, as State Commander C. C. Showalter, will make an address to the Sir Knights in this section of Harrison county. Refreshments served. Plans for a county convention will be made soon in which a school of instruction will take place, for all Sir Knights interested in knight hood of the Maccabees.

There seems to be keen rivalry among the tents at Parkersburg, Fairmont and Clarksville.

Clarksville tent No. 19 lead the state in membership for the month of March. Parkersburg lead for April, and now Fairmont has set out to lead for May. Clarksville tent is the second largest tent in West Virginia. The Sir Knights are aroused over the challenge from Fairmont, and they promise to wage a vigorous campaign, beginning Wednesday night, May 17. The officers of Clarksville tent expect a full attendance in order to finish up the Maccabee Rifle Company.

It will be necessary to have a roll call of the Clarksville tent to find out how many wish to join the uniform rank, therefore such a meeting is contemplated in the near future. The Maccabee roster recently gotten out by the local tent, shows $350,000 insurance carried by the Clarksville members. Watch for the Maccabees with military uniforms, and under the leadership of a competent drill master in the near future.

The River is Awful for Catarrh.

People living along river districts have catarrh as a rule. Most every drugstore sells, not "keeps" PRIMA-CURA. A quarter bottle will start you on the road to an early recovery.
